

“Research in Germany” Info-Sessions at the 24th European Career Fair in Boston

Sunday, February 23, 2020
Boston Marriott Cambridge

Program

11:00 Welcome

- Anna Oberle-Brill, Program Director, German Academic International Network (GAIN)

11:05 Opening Remarks

- Lucius Lichte, German General Consulate Boston

11:15 Introduction: The German Research and Higher Education Landscape

- Benedikt Brisch, Director North America, German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD)

11:45 Coffee Break

12:00 -1:30 Round Table Sessions (4 x 20 min slots and a coffee break)

Round Tables and Facilitators:

- Pursuing Graduate Studies and Pathways to a PhD in Germany
 - Dr. Lindsay Murrells, German Cancer Research Center (DKFZ)
 - Dr. Sigrun Wegener-Feldbrügge, Heinrich Heine University Düsseldorf
- Funding Opportunities for Master and PhD Programs
 - Gabrijela Nikolic, German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD)
 - Dr. Katja Simons, Campus OWL
- Funding Opportunities for Postdocs and Early Researchers
 - Dr. Philipp Gebhardt, German Cancer Research Center (DKFZ)
 - Stefan Altevogt, German Research Foundation (DFG)
- Junior Research Group Leaders: Careers at Research Institutes
 - Dr. Miguel Haubrich Seco, Leibniz Association
 - Alexandra Rosenbach, Helmholtz Association

- Junior Research Group Leaders: Careers at Research Institutes
 - Sabine Panglung, Max-Planck-Society
 - Nicole Cumia, Fraunhofer-Gesellschaft

- Opportunities for Postdocs at Universities and Research Centers
 - Dr. Pauline Popp, Technische Universität München
 - Dr. Wolfgang Holtkamp, University of Stuttgart

- Different Ways to a Professorship
 - Dr. Micha Schröter, Technische Universität München
 - Katrin Klink, Karlsruhe Institute of Technology

- FOR GERMAN RESEARCHERS: Time is up – Windows of Opportunity for a funded career step back to Germany
 - Helga Soer-Sodmann, University of Münster

- FOR INTERNATIONAL RESEARCHERS:
Living in Germany: Visa, work permit, social security, housing, language and mobility
 - Lucius Lichte, German General Consulate Boston
 - Donovan Babin, Bielefeld University